Be a Published Writer—Contribute to the Global Campus Voice

We are seeking content contributions for a UAGC publication, the Global Campus Voice. This is open to all UAGC students and alumni with an interesting story to tell, and it is designed to give them an opportunity to share their work. If your future involves any level of writing or other forms of communication, we want to hear from you! And, you can add those contributions to your resume. For more information, contact cheri.ketchum@uagc.edu.

UAGC Spirit Week | October 19-24, 2026

Spirit Week is an annual celebration hosted in UAGC Connect designed to bring our incredible student and alumni community together through fun daily activities, meaningful conversations, and a whole lot of UAGC Wildcat pride! Each day of Spirit Week will feature a themed prompt on UAGC Connect: Students can post, share, engage, and show their UAGC pride! One spirited student will be crowned the inaugural Spirit Stick winner, taking home the very first UAGC Spirit Stick and an exclusive UAGC Swag Package.

Not Sure Where to Start your Research? Check Out the Research Process Guide from the UAGC Library

Have you ever struggled to come up with a topic for your research paper or locate credible sources for an assignment? If so, you are not alone. The process of researching and writing a paper can be a challenge. That is why the UAGC Library created the Research Process Guide. This helpful guide will walk you through the process from selecting a topic and formulating a research question to finding credible sources and writing a paper.

Academic Catalog Reminder

Looking for the most up-to-date academic information? Be sure to regularly review the UAGC Academic Catalog, your primary resource for admissions, enrollment, academic policies, degree requirements, graduation requirements, state-specific information, and more.

New this month: An Academic Catalog Supplement has been published. Supplements provide updates and changes to the original catalog publication, including effective dates where applicable. We encourage you to review both resources to stay informed throughout your academic journey. For questions, please reach out to your Academic Advisor.
